WHAT IS THE MATTER?

The same white man who is now Deputy Recorder of Deeds, held the position of Deputy Recorder under Frederick Douglass and there was not a word said then. What is the matter now?—State Republican, Ala.

Why, neighbor, don't you understand? The six years that this same white man was Deputy Recorder under Fred. Douglass, Smith of the Cleveland Gazette, was not a candidate for the office of Recorder; but after observing some of the character of some of the material utilized by Cleveland, he came to the conclusion that the age of small men had arrived, and though he knew himself to be the very smallest of the small, he was foolish enough to believe that he might, by resorting to a species of legerdemain—a sort of dissolving view process, get at least one half of himself into the office. So concealing himself as much as possible, he brought out a candidate peculiarly his own and boomed him for nearly a year, but the trick failed and both Smith and his candidate were knocked out. Smith's interest in the matter was a purely selfish one, and, cry of "race, race" is a base subterfuge, for he cares no more for the interest of the race than he does for the interest of the banished Russians in Siberia.

QUERY.

Will some of our enterprising contemporaries furnish us the name of that colored editor of a newspaper at Cleveland, Ohio, who a few years ago, in the midst of a hot political canvass in that State, addressed a letter to Hon. Frederick Douglass soliciting his views as to the importance and necessity of the colored citizen mandating two hundred dollars from the Republican Committee for the document? Give us the name as softly as possible for we dare say that he is at this moment deeply engaged in some movement looking to the advancement of the "interest of the race," and we would not for the world disturb his equilibrium.

The race, the race, two hundred dollars interest in the race! Poor Smith.

True to its pledges, the Republican party has introduced a Federal Election Bill which, from indications, will pass both houses and become a law. The bill itself will hardly bear much fruit. The system of intimidation now carried on in parts of the South, will be as effectual under the proposed law as it has been. The bulldozing can't be done on election day, but it will be well done on the last preceding days.—"The Plaindealer."

We agree with our distinguished contemporary that the bill will not prevent intimidation and bulldozing at the South, for these are methods that must be dealt with in a more better way—the meeting of force with force, but frauds at elections which have been very generally adopted in the Southern States, will under the operation of this bill, be rendered impossible. The situation cannot be more deplorable than it is at present and any change that may be made will be an improvement. We confidently look forward to the time, and it is not far distant, when the National Government will, as a matter of self-preservation, have to take absolute control of the election of members of Congress.

The speeches made by the South ern wing of democratic party in House of Representatives, during the discussion of the election bill show conclusively that nothing less than this will effectually remedy the evils complained of.

REMOVE BAD TIMBER.

What Recorder B. K. Bruce should have done when he took charge of the Records office was to have made a clean sweep. The country looked for it and what he should do now is to reorganize his office and remove all objectionable timber. Now Mr. Bruce do your duty and that soon. The BEE as well as every body else would like to see deserving republicans appointed in the Records office. Will you appoint them?

KICKERS KICK.

Charlotte, N. C., July 9.—John H. Williamson, a leading Negro politician at Raleigh, has sent out letters to leading Negroes all over this State agitating the call of a race State Convention at Raleigh in August. The letter was sent to a prominent Negro here, who indorse the scheme and says that many Negroes here agree with him. The letter says: "The appointing power of the national administration has discriminated against our race; the same power has attempted to degrade our prominent men by putting them in nominal positions; and the attitude of white Republican leaders toward our race is such as to indicate that they no longer desire our support, except as servile tools and if they voice the sentiment of their white Republican brethren, then we are not further desired as a Republican factor in the politics of this State."

Whenever the Negroes of this country attempt to establish a separate or a distinct political organization that moment they dig their political graves. President Harrison, it must be admitted, has made more colored appointments than any republican or democratic president that has ever occupied the presidential chair. Some of our politicians will be like the dog with the bone that fell from his mouth in the water.

AN ENTERPRISING MAN.

Mr. Smith Wormley, of whom a brief mention was made some time ago, will complete his ten handsome bricks in a few weeks. These houses are situated in one of the most popular thorough-fares in this city, at the corner of 9th and Florida ave., n. w. One of the most commendable features about this enterprise is that all the workmen are colored. Mr. Wormley is doing what other colored men with money in this city are afraid to do. He is to be commended for his enterprise and more of our moneyed men do what he is doing the people in this city would be dependent.

DEAD WHITE MEN BETTER THAN A LIVE NEGRO.

The House Committee on Contestant Election cases decided this week to take up the Clayton, Arkansas case. It will be remembered that Clayton was assassinated by some unknown party pending the contest against Brackenridge. It is a shame for the House Committee to delay the case of Thomas H. Miller, the duly elected Republican Congressman from South Carolina and to give preference to a dead white contestant.

The republicans of the House can make as much campaign thunder out of Mr. Miller's case as can be made out of the dead Clayton's case. Let the colored press be heard from in no uncertain sound.

THE PINE BLUFF ECHO AND SENATOR BRUCE.

The Pine Bluff man is uneasy about Senator Bruce and his course as Recorder of Deeds and urges him not to be deceived by the BEE, the "New South" and the "News." He calls upon the recorder to watch the editors of the "Freeman" and the "Age" as well as the thinkers and writers of the first named papers. He thinks some have no political convictions while the others want office. If we mistake not Bro. Duke of late exhibits signs of having very serious symptoms of political convictions, and if we mistake not he sucked a fat-tete that hangs to the Federal cow till courage failed him, and he exclaimed that that fight (?) and runs away lives to fight another day.

Atlanta News.

So far as we are concerned Bro. Pledger we have no time to waste on that runaway ass of the Pine Bluff Echo. J. C. Dukes is the most erratic male now editing a paper. The best evidence is, that it was on account of his foolish expressions that caused him to leave the South.

It is a malicious custom that some of our papers adopt straining or stretching a point, in the life or action of our prominent men into contumely. A journal that is unreliable in its criticisms cannot be trusted in its judgments. Some of us are so evil minded that a hinted mistake is assumed to be a proven fact. We jump at hearsays and publish them as confirmed tidings, because there is a scandal in them. No man's reputation either public or private should be attacked at the instant of some unknown upstart whose whole purpose is to gain distinction, they care not of whose expense. Register BRUCE is a victim of just such a persecution, instigated by one of his clerks, who should be grateful rather than jealous. If Mr. Bruce had fired Mr. JOHNSON unceremoniously, he would never have had all this hullabaloo about nothing, about his ears.

The Plaindealer.

We are of the opinion that there should have been a recognition of the Recorder of Deeds office. Mr. Bruce should have made a radical sweep, but no, he thought it best not to disturb.

Had the BEE been made Recorder instead of Mr. Bruce the negroes would have had something to talk about. The BEE is not Recorder.

On the evening of the 4th of July, at Alex., Va., a crowd of colored people assembled at the depot as is usual on such occasions, some to take the train for their homes in the surrounding towns and others to see off their friends, two policemen attempted to make an arrest for some trivial offence, and under the pretense of being resisted deliberately shot down two colored men as though they had been dogs. The men who did the shooting were allowed to go free; and a city newspaper commenting upon the tragedy says, "the two negroes killed were noisy politicians." How long can this state of things continue?

Will the senate allow the election bill to fail because the Democrats harken to prolong the session into the winter months? We doubt believe it. The senate is quite as familiar with the methods resorted to as the South to carry elections as was the House, when it, by a party vote passed the measure. We must not go before the country this fall standing upon broken promises.

The House came out at its last meeting, to the surprise of many, decided in favor of C. C. Johnson, the Democrat, and against Hill the Republican contestant from the 3rd district of Miss. It was in our judgement a grave mistake.

In addition to the four senators and two representatives which the republics through the and Wyoming and we believe every state in reason at the last election.

NEW YORK NOTES.

The article from the "Boston Pilot" copied in the "New York Tribune," republished in the last issue of the BEE, is a tribute to the worth of the progressiveness of an educated member of the race, in the person of Clement Garnett Morgan, who in his class oration made his political convictions known, by his allusions to the natural democracy of the Negro; the more advanced of whom are in the front rank, of supporters of what is known as the new democracy and has for its exponent Ex President Grover Cleveland. A majority of the young colored men of the country, may be found openly in favor of Cleveland, if he, as seems very probable just now, shall be the candidate of his party, for president in '92.

Miss Mary Matthews is visiting her brother the Ex-Recorder, at his home in Albany, N. Y., from whence she goes for the balance of the summer to visit Hon. Garret Loguen, Ex-Deputy Recorder who lives at Syracuse, N. Y.

The annual basket picnic of St. Phillips S. S., at Hastings on the Hudson, was largely attended and was a perfect success in every particular. The day was fine and the company also of the finest.

Mrs. Dr. P. W. Ray, of Brooklyn, who with her daughter Miss Florence, have just returned from a visit to Boston, Mass., where they attended the reception to Messrs Morgan and Dubois, the Yale and Harvard Graduates. They received marked attention from the elite society element of the Hub and was much pleased with their trip.

Mrs. V. C. Murray has gone to her summer cottage at Florida, N. Y., for the season.

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY NOTES.

- 46. Romeo and Juliet. A play in five acts, by William Shakespeare. The characters in the story are always ready and full of feeling.
- 47. Enoch Arden, and other gems. By Alfred Tennyson. For purity of style, genuine sweetness and touching pathos, the great poet has never surpassed his "Enoch Arden." In this poem of human affection he is at his best, and we cannot know the poet's heart without knowing it.
- 48. Cardinal Richelieu. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. The character of the great, ambitious, French prime minister, as sketched by Bulwer in his immortal play of Cardinal Richelieu, is the one which has been the basis of all dramatic compositions.
- 49. Paul and Virginia. By Bernard de St. Pierre. This beautiful French novel is a masterpiece of beauty and every reading. It is the "story that never dies," told in the purest language and tenderest style. Part I. 50. Part II. 51. above.
- 50. Money. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. Who ever read Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" should read Bulwer's "Money." Under the same title you see the same and here the judge of the full play.
- 51. Rascals. Prince of Abyssinia. By Dr. Samuel Johnson. One of those immortal writings by a master and of which no one can afford to be without. A story of the human heart in its happiest mood, earnest struggle, and noble aspirations. Part I. 52. Part II. 53. above.
- 52. William Shakespeare's How When. An act in three scenes. It is a play which has been compressed into such brief space so much about the immortal "Hamlet" as in this work of the brilliant French author. It will open the eyes of the reader to a thousand things he never dreamed of.
- 53. An Atlantic Episode. By Justin G. Smith. A powerful and brilliant life story. The situations are natural, the plot is absorbing. It is the "all about" as Liverpool, is the story.
- 54. Robinson Crusoe. A thrilling narrative by Daniel Defoe, describing the adventures of a castaway in the South Pacific Ocean.
- 55. How to Make Poetry Pay. A practical and instructive series of articles by Mr. R. H. Jacobs. Poets, Editors, Publishers, and Authors, all will find it profitable.
- 56. Parlor Magic and Chemical Experiments. A book which tells how to perform hundreds of amazing tricks, and is a most interesting and profitable work for the amateur.
